Test Document for Translation

This is a simple test document written in English.
It contains multiple paragraphs to test the translation functionality.
The PDF translator should extract this text, translate it to the target language, and create a new PDF document.
This test helps verify that the entire workflow is functioning correctly.